S-E-C-R-E-I

Approved For Release 2002/11/14: CIA-RDP63-00084A000200050089-3 AIR POUCH D-1352 FOREIGN SERVICE DESPATCH AMEMBASSY, LONDON FROM: December 12, 1955 THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE, WASHINGTON TO : 25X1A2q REF 2 Action Depto A/REP HM/R EUR ALI :M For Dept.: E Use Only : Rec d : F Other :0 CIA : 12-15 Reports 25X1A2a Transmission of SUBJECT: EXCON Reproduced as Enclosures 1 and 2 FOR INFORMATION ONLY are two memoranda received which, it is felt, will be of interest to economic defense officials. The attention of the Department of Commerce is particularly 25X1A2q drawn to the memorandum reproduced as Enclosure 1 concerning shipment of U.S.origin borax to Germany, destined for Foland. 25X1A files available to the Embassy shows that Richard IHLE, Branhamstrasse 57a (spelling unclear), Hamburg, was a "confidential forwarder" for a firm founded by the Soviet Military Government in Eastern Germany which had a virtual monopoly in the shipment of goods in the Soviet Zone (see Bonn D-1758, December 15, 1953). For the Ambassador: Dwight E. Scarbrough Approved: Second Secretary of Embassy Kathleen Molesworth Commercial Attache 25X1A2q Enclosures: memo, 12/7/55. 1. Copy of memo, 12/8/55. 2. Copy of 25X1A Embassies, Bonn, Bern, Brussels, The Hague; AmConsulates cc: General, Hamburg, Antwerp, and Zurich.

State Dept. declassification & release instructions on file

JTPapenderp:DES: La

S-E-C-R-E-I Approved For Release 2002/11/14 : CIA-RDP63-00084A000200050089-3